Mrs. Daniel (Angie) Maras, of Antioch, has been named the first place winner in the National Grange Sewing Contest for 1969. A member of the Ridgefield Grange No. 1923 of McHenry County Mrs. Maras becomes the first winner of a national contest from that Grange.

She won in Class C which covered any type of dress or suit made by a person 18 years of age or over for a person under 18 including infants and small boys.

She will join the first place winners in Class A and B for the final judging of the 1969 National Grange Cotton Sewing Contest.

Over 50,000 women participated in this year's contest from 37 states. These garments were judged first on the local level, then state and the first place state winners in each class were then sent to New York City for final judging.

Mrs. Donald Peck, director of women's activities for the National Grange said that the Grand Award Winner will be chosen from the first place winners on Nov. 14 at Daytona Beach, Fla., during the annual session of the National Grange.

Among the prizes going to the Grand Award Winner and other finalists are a 7-day cruise for two to Nassau, $1,000 in cash, a weekend for two at the convention in Daytona Beach, typewriters, stereo phonographs, sewing machines and U. S. Savings Bonds.

Mrs. Maras said that next year she is going to promote the contest among several groups, The 4-H girls, Lake Region Homemakers and the Antioch Woman's Club.

School Board Okays Construction Award

The Antioch Grade School Board of Education Tuesday night awarded the new middle grade school foundation and limited site improvement work to the Jenkins & Boller Construction Co., of Waukegan, with a low bid of $123,300.

The board voted unanimously to give the contract to the low bidder after opening three bids at an 8 p.m. meeting in the Antioch Grade School.

Other bidders on the project were A. W. Heinson Construction Co., Mundelein, with a bid of $139,270; and Laursen and Blackman with a bid of $162,570.

Both unsuccessful bidders said completion would be in 100 days while the Jenkins firm listed 75 days for completion of the work.

Involved is 70,000 square feet of concrete and rough grading for the entire site.

Architects told the board that quick awarding of the contract would cut two months off the building time which estimated to be about 10 months.

The driveways and the sidewalk work is not included in the contract although the entrance to the site off Rte. 173 is included.

Architects said that the grading would be within four inches of the finished grade.

They said by the time the work is completed they would be ready to proceed with the actual building phase.

They estimated that bids would be let sometime after the first of August and that contracts could then be out shortly after the first of September.

The board, acting on the recommendations, authorized the firm, Orput-Orput & Associates, Inc., of Rockford, to immediately send a letter of intent and a contract to the low bidder.

The 75 calendar days will begin with the signing of the contract after receiving the letter of intent.

If work is stalled on the site and the 75 days is exceeded the board will be reimbursed at a rate of $100 a day for each day delayed.

Seek More Bids

The Antioch Village Board met for 15 minutes Tuesday night, decided to take no action on the purpose for which the meeting was called, adjourned and talked for an hour on putting in a parking lot on the east side of Main Street.

During the official portion of the meeting the board moved not to open the one bid it had received for the repainting of the northside water tower.

Superintendent of Public Works Edgar S. Simonson will seek additional bids. The special meeting had been called to award the bid for the painting of the tower which will go from its present green to silver.

One of the two Antioch residents attending the meeting asked why the tower couldn't remain green. He said the color is more appealing than silver. Simonson said silver paint keeps the water cooler and needs less maintenance.

The unopened bid was submitted by John H. Greenlee of Cherry Valley who has twice be- (Continued on page three)

Big Circus Day Is Almost Upon Us

Sunday, July 13, is circus day. The arrival of a real three-ring European style circus takes place in Antioch as the big Sells & Gray Circus arrives at daybreak for performances at 2 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.

The circus grounds will be on Rte. 173 near the Ford Garage under the sponsorship of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce.

The circus will arrive on three colorful convoys at daybreak and the always interesting and traditional spectacle of watching a tented circus arise on circus morning is expected to start at 8 a.m.

Most of the youngsters will be probably seeing their first traditional circus under the "Big Top" with all of its nostalgic excitement for the first time.

Many of the oldsters on hand will be re-living some golden memories.

The usual swift unloading of animals and equipment will be handled by circus workmen aided by circus performing elephants, and out of apparent chaos will come orderly precision as the tented city is erected.

The Sells & Gray Circus currently on its annual tour of the U.S. and Canada is considered in circusdom to be one of the two major tent circuses in America today.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClary

The decision of the United States Supreme Court in the Clayton Powell case confirms that the head-on collision between the Court and the Congress continues unabated.

It was scarcely two years ago that the United States House of Representatives, in reliance on its Constitutional right to judge the qualification of its Members, "excluded" veteran Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., of New York's 18th Congressional District (Harlem) from taking his seat—although he had just been re-elected by an overwhelming majority. The United States House action was based on findings that Powell had failed to account for Committee travel expenditures and had placed his estranged wife on his payroll although she lived in Puerto Rico—and performed no services.

The Supreme Court found that Powell met the Constitutional requirements of Article I Section 2 of the Constitution: namely, (a) age (at least 25 years old), (b) United States citizenship and (c) residence in the State of New York. The Court went on to decide that ANY person who meets these constitutional prerequisites and receives the largest number of votes in a Congressional District is entitled to be seated as a Member of the House of Representatives—notwithstanding any prior offenses committed against the Congress or society. The House' action was reflected in a vote of 307 to 116 (a better than two-thirds majority) to "exclude" Powell. However, the Supreme Court ruled that even though the Congress was entitled to expel one of its Members by a two-thirds vote (after seating him) it could not "exclude" a person who has been lawfully elected.

Indeed, the Court appears to have gone further than it needed to go by admonishing the House of Representatives that acts of misconduct committed during a prior session (such as those with which Powell was charged) could not be the basis for Powell's exclusion—or expulsion.

In evaluating the Supreme Court's opinion, it should be recalled that a Select Committee of Lawyer Members of the House was appointed in 1967 when the issue of seating Representative Powell as a Member of Congress arose. The Select Committee found (as the Supreme Court did) that Powell had met the constitutional requirements which entitled him to take his seat. In addition, the Committee also recommended that Powell should be punished by (a) a fine of $40,000, (b) the stripping of his seniority, and (c) his removal as Chairman of the House Committee on Education and Labor. However, in an atmosphere of righteous indignation, the House rejected the recommendation of the Select Committee by a vote of 248 to 176, and thereupon proceeded to "exclude" Powell by a margin of more than 2 to one.

The end of the Adam Clayton Powell case is not yet in sight. Powell's suit to recover the back salary of which he was deprived during the last Congress will be litigated during the months to come. Nor is the issue between the Supreme Court and the United States Congress finally resolved. Many Members of the Congress would like to retaliate by depriving the Supreme Court of some of its authority or in some other manner. Indeed, if the United States should be ordered to pay Powell his back salary, it is a distinct possibility that Congress would refuse to appropriate the funds.

It may be somewhat prophetic that the new Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Warren E. Burger, as a Member of the U. S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, wrote the opinion which was reversed by the Supreme Court in an opinion written by retiring Chief Justice Earl Warren.

In the original dismissal of Powell's case, District Judge

George L. Hart, wrote: "For this court to order any Member of the House of Representatives . . . to do or not to do an act related to the organization of Membership of that House, would be for the Court to crash through the political thicket into the political quicksand."

The Supreme Court is now deep in the political quicksand predicted by Judge Hart. It is to be hoped that out of the existing crisis both the Congress and the Supreme Court may regain their separate and distinct, albeit coordinate status as coequal branches of Government, which together with the Executive Branch, form the basis of our constitutional system.

EDITORIAL

Be A Flag Waver

Friday is the 4th of July—Independence Day. For some it is a day of fun and frolic—and that is as it should be.

But with all of the fun there should be a little serious thought also:

We can never know or fully appreciate the hardships and grievances of those who signed the Declaration of Independence.

Patriotism is sadly lacking in some quarters today and it is a shame.

Being called a flag-waver in some quarters is to be called a dirty name.

But the privileges we share as Americans are not available to all people of the world.

Our debt to our Founding Fathers, who were willing to sacrifice to establish a system of self-government in which we all have a choice, is great indeed.

We live in a nation today which offers more equality, justice, freedom and a greater opportunity than provided by any other system in history.

True, it is not perfect.

But we are working at it.

Millions of people in the world today live under tyrannical governments and they must wonder why we are in such turmoil—we who have so much.

They must long for what we have as our birthright.

So enjoy this holiday.

But think back, too, on what it took to bring us to this day that we might enjoy the fruits of honest labor in safety and with our families.

Be a flag-waver.

It's not so bad after all.

The Kids Need You

An interesting folder passed over our desk the other day.

It was entitled Homelife for Children and it pointed out that the Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society needs special people as foster parents.

Both black and white foster parents are needed—those who are willing to care for children who for one reason or another cannot be cared for in their own homes.

The Society has all kinds of kids that need homes. They have toddlers or adolescents who need a special kind of love that only a parent who chooses his child can give.

The Society pays for board and clothing, gives dental and medical care and provides services needed to allow each child to develop according to his abilities.

So if you haven't any children of your own.

Or if you have space to give needed love and attention to another—the place to go is to the Society.

They need you.

And the kids do too.

Seek More Bids ...

fore been awarded tower painting contracts by Antioch.

The discussion of the parking lot behind businesses on the east side of Main Street came up after the board had adjourned the special meeting.

Mayor Raymond P. Toft read a letter from the Antioch Chamber of Commerce asking that the police station on Main Street not be sold but that the property be used as an access road to parking.

Trustee Robert Wilton pointed out that the property is only 28 feet wide and hardly wide enough for a street.

Toft added that a movement to build the parking lot has been going on for about six years and that the merchants did not seem to want to cooperate in donating land to the cause.

Village Attorney Edward C. Jacobs suggested that perhaps there was now some "new blood" among the businessmen and the plan could succeed.

In any event the board did not know if the police station property could be of use in providing access to the proposed parking area. However, the board decided to ask the two bidders on the police station property to hold off until the importance of the property can be determined.

Toft appointed Trustees Vern Barnstable, Richard Radke and Wilton to a committee to contact businessmen to see if they are interested in donating land to the parking lot.

Simonsen said the village had filled the land and that "some people park back there now."

Wilton said that store owners could remodel the backs of their stores if the lot became a reality. He was certain the taverns would do it.

In other unofficial business the board was undecided whether or not to charge Antioch Grade School for a building permit for the first phase of the new middle school construction.

The area has not been annexed but the village board has promised to annex the property.

Attorney Jacobs said that there was no tax advantage to annexing the school but the property was next to residential areas the village would like to annex.

Jacobs suggested that Toft make sure that all of the school's property is included in the annexation agreement including land the school wishes to donate to the township for a road.

Jacobs said the village would rather have the property annexed before the land for the road is given to the township.

Letter Carriers Are Urged To "Cool It" As Severe Unrest Follows 4% Increase

The President of the National Association of Letter Carriers, AFL-CIO, has urged his 210,000 members to "cool it" and to refrain from taking any drastic actions which could cause heavy fines, removal from their jobs and possible jail sentences.

James H. Rademacher, acting swiftly following receipt of a White House directive which increases wages of postal employees in the lower levels by only 4.1%, assured his membership that Congress would make up the difference in updating wage scales to true comparability in July.

President Nixon had acted in accordance with existing law, and recommended wage increases for the Nation's Federal workers and members of the Military. Increases range from 4% to close to 12%, throughout the Federal establishment. In accordance with the 1967 Pay Reform Act, wages of all Federal workers were to be comparable with certain private sector workers this year.

Rejecting the meager increase as an insult, the Carrier leader declared the 4.1% increase was more than 1% less than the cost-of-living increase since the last postal pay raise. "Salary increases since 1967 have been completely wiped out by taxation at every level and by the soaring cost of living," he stated.

Rademacher's fears over the possibility of wildcat strikes, work stoppages and wholesale sick leave absences stemmed from his belief that morale had been shattered and that postal workers were ready to react. He based his contention on the following facts:

In determining comparability, the Administration has first determined budgetary allowances and then proposed pay increases in accordance with the budget and not with comparability.

Figures compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics indicate that the average wage of so-called "comparable" employees in the private sector as of June 1968, was $7.618. The pay raises now being offered will force letter carriers to work ten years before they receive the average wage now being paid these employees.

Based upon BLS figures and according to research of the NALC, letter carriers should be earning $8.550 in July 1969 after three years of service.

Postal wage scales currently begin at $2.85 hourly and new employees are guaranteed two hours' work daily by law. They are not converted to regular status for an average of three years, hence the tremendous turnover of new workers. It requires 25 years of service to reach top pay of $8,094 annually. From this amount is deducted 6 1/2% for retirement, and postal workers pay 75% of the cost of their health and life insurance.

The constant criticism of the postal service, supported by Post Office Department officials who have recommended that postal workers be taken from Civil Service coverage and become employees of a U.S. Postal Service, causing employees to be fearful politics will become rampant, once again letter carriers could be graded on how they deliver their precinct, and not on how they deliver the mail.

As indicated by President Nixon and Postmaster General Blount, employees continue to work in crowded, unsafe, dirty conditions, for which there is no immediate relief even under postal reform.

Thirty-seven hundred delegates at the NALC National Convention in Boston, Mass., in August 1968 voted unanimously to seek the elimination of the restrictions against Government workers from striking.

There is no sound labor-management policy in the postal service today and the atmosphere of collective bargaining continues to prevail. Although employees are guaranteed the right to process grievances there is no penalty against unscrupulous management and, in many post offices, pressures continue to be placed upon employees who are handling the greatest mail volume in history—more than 82 billion pieces annually.

In his urgent appeal to the membership, President Rademacher assured the Nation's letter carriers that their grievances were to be heard commencing with testimony which is to be presented by the NALC before a House subcommittee on June 28. The Subcommittee on Compensation, chaired by Rep. Morris K. Udall (D-Ariz.) has announced hearings on the subject of comparability and pay legislation which has been sponsored by many Members of Congress, commencing on June 16. Followup testimony of Administration witnesses, postal unions will be heard.

Rademacher also assured his members that NALC testimony opposing the removal of employees from the protection of Civil Service status and relating to the conversion of the postal establishment to a corporation would be presented to the Congress some time in July. The House Post Office and Civil Service Committee is continuing hearings on this subject under the chairmanship of Rep. Thaddeus J. Dulski (D-N.Y.)

Postal employees, as well as all Federal workers, are restricted from striking by several laws, and penalties which provide a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year can be assessed those who violate the laws and the U. S. Code. Postal employees may not participate in a strike or assert the right to strike against the Government.

In addition to serving as President of the National Association of Letter Carriers, AFL-CIO, Rademacher is chairman of the Government Employee's Council, AFL-CIO which represents over one million postal and federal workers.

Lindenhurst News

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau 356-5649

NEW BABIES

When people ask Lisa Marie Ray where she was born, she will probably reply, "on Grand Avenue, in Lindenhurst, as the Lake Villa Rescue Squad was passing Linden Plaza." (That's about 2100 E. Grand Avenue).

Mrs. Charles (Shirley) Ray of 1906 E. Grand Avenue, Lindenhurst, thought she had "plenty of time" at 2:30 a.m. on June 27, but realized it was "later than she thought" when she started for the hospital around 6 a.m. Realizing they wouldn't make it in time they called the Lake Villa Rescue Squad to get her to St. Therese Hospital quickly and safely.

Although they didn't make it in time, Mrs. Ray and the baby were in good hands. Upon arriving at the hospital, Lisa Marie was put in isolation for two days. She weighed in at 6 pounds, 7 ounces. At the last report Sunday evening, mother and daughter were doing fine.

The proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ray, 2129 E. Fairfield Road, Lindenhurst, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Robak of Libertyville.

The Rays have two other daughters, Deborah Ann who was 3 years old April 23, and Carrie Lynn, one year old on Feb. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. (Catherine) Zeck of 2305 Spring Hill road, Seven Hills, welcomed their first son and fourth child at St. Therese Hospital on June 25. Five-pound, 4 ounce Stephen Anthony will be welcomed by his sisters Patricia, and Jeannette when he arrives home.

The proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Zeck of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cahill of Dublin, Ireland.

Pfc. Leonard G. Clark, Jr., was somewhere in Vietnam on June 27 when his wife, Kathy, gave birth to their first child at Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan. Christine Ann weighed 8 pounds, 11½ ounces when she was born. Mrs. Clark is living with her husband's parents Mr. and Mrs. Leonard (Ingy) Clark, at 204 Hazelwood Drive. Leonard is a graduate of Lake Villa Grade School and also of Antioch Community High School. If any of his former classmates would like to write to him, his address is: PFC. Leonard G. Clark, Jr., RA 169 108 96; 178 Assault Supply Helicopter Co.; Box 5A; APO San Francisco, Calif. 96374.

The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zelen of Chappel Lake. The baby is their sixth grandchild. And the Clarks' second.

Thirty-three people attended a bridal shower for Miss Loren Lee Lewis on June 18 at the home of her Aunt, Mrs. Peter Jacki in Lombard. Relatives from both sides of the family attended. Loren Lee and E. Stephen Townsend, Jr., of Chicago are going to be married July 5.

Mrs. Earl Wilcox of Waukegan gave a shower at the Lewis home on June 24. Thirty-two attended, bringing many lovely, useful gifts. Mrs. Wilcox, the former Eleanor Bauman, was a bride last Saturday. Mr. Wilcox is in the service.

Jehovah's Witnesses Plan Meet

David Mitchell, presiding minister of Jehovah's Witnesses in Antioch, announced that summer convention plans are being finalized by the local religious group.

Some 45,000 are expected to attend White Sox Park, July 21-27, for seven days of Bible instruction and training. Already rooming requests indicate that at least 45 states will be represented.

The Chicago assembly is one of eight that will be held in the United States and Canada. Other conventions will be held at Atlanta Stadium, Atlanta, Georgia, July 6-13; War Memorial Stadium, Buffalo, New York, July 6-13; New York Stadium, New York, July 7-13; Fairgrounds Grandstand, Pomona, Calif. (Spanish), July 13-20; Empire Stadium, Exhibition Park, Vancouver, British Columbia, July 13-20; Dodger Stadium, Los Angeles, Calif., July 14-20; Municipal Stadium, Kansas City, Mo., July 18-25.

Coordinated with these assemblies will be a series of European conventions to be held in London, Paris, Nuremberg, and Rome during the summer.

Later in the year a series of Far East conventions will be held. Included among these are gatherings in Seoul, Korea; Tokyo, Japan; Taipei, Taiwan; Hong Kong; Manila; Port Moresby, Papua; Melbourne, Australia; Auckland, New Zealand; Suva, Fiji; Papeete, Tahiti, and Honolulu. The 1969 meets conclude in Mexico City.

Mitchell pointed out that Jehovah's Witnesses are now found in 200 different countries. He said that those who are associated with various congregations are being encouraged to attend one of the 1969 conventions, if possible, in a foreign country.

The 1969 assemblies will carry the theme of "Peace on Earth." A feature of the conventions will be a series of costumed dramas that make the pages of the Bible live to its readers.

At the present a vanguard of 5,000 Witnesses is engaged in a massive house-to-house hunt. In order to find accommodations to house the thousands of delegates who will pour into Chicago in July, Mitchell stated that the same method of acquiring rooms was used in New York in 1958 when 95,000 accommodations were obtained.

Mitchell concluded his comments on the conventions by saying that some 20 departments are being set up to take care of the delegates. Volunteers or being sought in the local congregation to help fill these departmental needs.

YESTERDAYS

20 YEARS AGO
Taken From the Files of The Antioch News Thursday, June 23, 1949

Tony Galento, who once floored Joe Louis in a prize fight, started throwing punches at Jim McMillen of Antioch in their main wrestling event at the Waukegan High School Saturday night, and as the result McMillen won the match.

The only call for the Antioch Fire Department was at the Willis Shannon home in Shannon's Subdivision at Channel Lake, where a hot water heater became unmanageable. No damage was done.

Two members of the Young People's MYF of the Methodist Church in Antioch will leave this Sunday for Lake Geneva and the annual Young People's Camp, which lasts for a week. Those going are Bob Wilton and Bob Kufalk.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ostfeldt entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Ernst, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gaston and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hegeman and daughter at a 6:30 dinner, at the home of their son, Everett and family.

TEN YEARS AGO

Thursday, June 25, 1939

Four Antioch students were among the 390 boys and girls who participated in the second annual junior high music clinics held at the University of Wisconsin. The students taking part were June Bohrens, Rt. 2; Jane Edwards, 600 Parkway; Carol M. Wiegart, Rt. 4, and Harleen Young, 701 N. Main.

Baptismal services were held for David Peter Zitkus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Zitkus, and Darlene Yolanda Kraemer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kraemer at Millburn Congregation Church Sunday.

Hello, Mom! Surprise! The Channel Lake community was given a scare Sunday by four-year-old Loretta Ring, but her childish prank was discovered before panic enveloped the area.

She became the subject of a two-hour search when it was feared she was lost. Around lunch time 11:30 she could not be found so neighbors joined Mrs. Blaine Ring and family in the search.

Mrs. Ring enlisted the aid of Jack Wells, a state policeman living at Channel Lake, who led the hunt.

Suddenly Mrs. Ring recalled that young Loretta, upon hearing the car going away, would climb into the family's station wagon and in a few blocks she would pop up. But this time with her brother Tom and father in the car she did not want them to know she was along, so she stayed down and the car was parked in the railroad parking lot in Waukegan, while daddy and brother were in Chicago for the baseball game.

Remembering her prank, Mrs. Ring asked Trooper Wells to radio Waukegan police to check the car. They found the youngster, frightened but safely locked in the family auto and the search was called off.

State To Strike New Medallion

Governor Richard B. Ogilvie's inauguration as the state's 37th chief executive will be commemorated in a handsome silver dollar-size medallion to be issued within the next six weeks by the Illinois division of Spacecraft Medals, Inc., Harrisburg, a Spacecraft official announced today.

The official medal was authorized by the Governor in an exclusive contract with the Harrisburg firm, represented by two brothers, John and Roy C. Small. The piece will be executed by the Franklin Mint of Yeadon, Pa., who also struck the official Sesquicentennial medallions. Measuring 39 millimeters in diameter, the medals will be struck in bronze, in pure silver and in platinum.

The obverse ("heads") side of the medallion displays a portrait bust of the governor executed by the distinguished portrait sculptor, Phillip Nathan, formerly of the British Royal Mint. The reverse side of the medal bears the Illinois State Seal.

GI Life Insurance Is Detailed

The average World War II veteran, now 40.3 years of age, is fast approaching the higher premium hurdle of 50 if he still retains his G.I. term insurance, the Veterans Administration said today.

The VA says that in most cases the higher insurance cash outlay at age 50 can be eased in number of ways.

One way is a modified life plan. If purchased at age 50, it will have a constant monthly premium of $15.90 for a $10,000 policy. However, when the insured reaches the age of 65, the face value of the policy is automatically reduced in half, but the premium remains unchanged.

The VA explains that many people find their insurance needs decline at or near the age of 65. However, the insured who wishes to continue the full $10,000 of his policy may do so without medical examination by paying an additional $5.15 per $1,000 at the age of 65. Thus, for the added $5,000 protection total monthly premiums would be $41.65.

Some 211,000 eligible veterans have taken advantage of this plan since it was made available in 1965.

Another popular plan is the ordinary life (603,000 policies) where at the age of 50 the monthly premiums would be $31.20 for $10,000 worth of protection. But with the annual dividend paid by NSLI the cost of the premium would be reduced to about $24 a month, the VA points out.

And, to make it even more convenient to convert from term insurance, the VA reminds veterans that if it is not possible to change the full amount of the policy a portion may be converted now and the remainder continued as term insurance, with the privilege of full conversion later on.

Also available to NSLI term policy holders are 20- and 30-payment life 20-year endowment, and endowments that mature when the insured reaches the age of 60 or 65.

Information on policy conversion may be obtained at the VA insurance office where the veteran mails his premiums. The insurance policy number and the veteran's full name and address should be included in all correspondence, VA said.

Illinois Economy Boosted

The economy of Illinois has been boosted more than $2,774,977,884 in the past quarter of a century by the G.I. Bill loan programs, John B. Naser, manager of the Chicago Veterans Administration Regional Office, said today.

Since the World War II program started on June 22, 1944, the VA has guaranteed or insured more than 273,240 loans in the amount of $2,774,977,884 for Illinois veterans, he said.

Nationwide, the VA has guaranteed or insured more than 7.4 million loans amounting to nearly $75 billion in the past quarter of a century. Nearly 7.1 million of these loans in the amount of approximately $71 billion were for homes, Naser explained.

Of the 273,240 VA-guaranteed or insured loans in Illinois, 4,474 amounting to $74,169,972 were obtained by Viet-Nam era veterans.

Throughout the country, Naser pointed out, nearly 150,000 loans amounting to almost $2.6 billion were for Viet-Nam era veterans. All of these were home loans, he said, since the present Post-Korean G.I. Bill does not provide for business loans to veterans whose military service began after Jan. 31, 1955.

Illinois veterans have proved to be responsible home owners, Naser said, citing the fact that 145,818 loans in the amount of $1,121,598,277 have been repaid in full.

Nationwide, more than 3.6 million loans in the amount of $27.2 billion have been repaid in full.

Currently, Naser said, nearly nine out of 10 loans being guaranteed by the VA are for veterans who served after Jan. 31, 1955.

Information on securing a G.I. loan may be obtained from any VA regional office.

Partisan Fights Only Part of Legislative Picture

While the headlines from the legislative scene tell of battles between members of the two political parties, frequently lost by the public in all of this is the fact that a strong friendship develops between many members of the two political parties.

The headlines also tend to ignore the fact that in most things the two political parties work together and vote together—for in most of the problems which confront us there are neither Republican nor Democratic answers, neither liberal nor conservative answers, but practical answers to practical situations.

And the friendships which develop across party lines help to prevent divisions between parties from becoming so deep-seated that the practical answers are not possible. Without this mutual respect, it would be impossible to conduct the day-to-day business of the legislature.

I recall that when I was a member of the House and my car broke down in Odell, a small town near Pontiac, I had to get to Springfield to speak at a banquet there. I immediately called a House colleague (now a member of the Senate), William Harris, who gave me the use of his car that day. Senator Harris and I do not belong to the same political party, but that made no difference.

Senator John Lanigan and I do not share political affiliation and differ strongly in the area of solving problems in the field of human relations—yet I respect him for the contributions he has made, particularly in the fiscal field.

Sometimes visitors come to Springfield and see two men battle it out on the floor of the House or Senate for an hour or two—and then see them out having dinner together that evening.

The visitors are shocked. It does not mean that the debate was not genuine, nor the differences between the two men small.

It does mean that legislators—at least those who have been in office a few years—have matured enough to know that you should be able to disagree without being disagreeable.

And this is one of the reasons the ship of state does not ruin itself on the rocks of partisanship.

Use Dairy Products In 4-H Program

Man has not yet been able to invent a milk machine that is better than the cow. The cow converts fortified rough feed into a highly nutritious food: Milk.

But man has done a lot of things to that milk. He has purified it, homogenized it, evaporated it, dried it, soured it, flavored it, taken out the fats, and left some in. And all of this to please the homemaker.

Dairy month—June—which glorifies milk has the support of the nation's 4-H members engaged in a dairy foods project.

The Carnation Company of Los Angeles has a stake in June too, as sponsor of the national 4-H stone Ave., Fox Lake; Brian J. Magee, 625 E. Grand Ave., Ingleside; William D. Marden, 1615 Rte. 23, Harvard; Ernest R. Peterson, Jr., 2837 Pine St., Waukegan, and Frederick L. Schmidt, 5320 W. Highland Dr., McHenry.

Congratulatory addresses were delivered by Don Ariano, of Highland Park, president of the contractors association, and Ron Short, secretary-treasurer of Local 93.

Dairy Foods program. More than half-a-million 4-H'ers participate in the program, according to an estimate made by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Carnation has provided incentive awards in the program for the last 22 years. This year a new state award has been announced. It is an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago. Previously the top state award was a handsomely engraved wrist watch.

The six 1969 national champions will receive $600 scholarships. Medals of honor will be presented to those who qualify for the four county awards.

Projects vary throughout the area, but most center around preparing main courses, desserts, salads and snacks from dairy products.

Meal planning and cooking with dairy foods adds variety to the menu and most of all, insures better nutrition for the family.

Showing how it is done and explaining some of the scientific reasons why certain things happen during cooking are demonstrated by the youthful cooks. They learn a lot about nutritional make-up of milk, and why milk is one of the best and cheapest foods for growing boys and girls.

Dairymen Get New Pricing

A superpool blend price of at least $4.99 per hundredweight, highest May blend price in the history of the Chicago milk market, will be paid dairy farmers for Grade A milk delivered during May to Chicago-market plants within zone 1 of the Chicago regional federal milk order.

This was announced by Pure Milk Association, a member of and marketing agent for Central Milk Producers Cooperative, an organization of 19 producers Cooperatives which supplies most of the milk for Chicago, Milwaukee, Madison and northeastern Wisconsin.

Zone 1, the area in which the $4.99 price applies, includes the Illinois and Wisconsin territory within 85 miles of Chicago, plus Milwaukee county, Wis., and Winnebago county, Ill.

The $4.99 applies to milk of 3.5 per cent butterfat content and is a blend of the May average superpool price of approximately $5.78 per hundredweight for Class I (bottling) and $4.37 per hundredweight for Class II milk (milk used for other than bottling purposes).

May Class I (bottling) milk utilization was 45 per cent of the 681,197,330 pounds of milk in the Chicago regional market pool. May milk in the pool was 51,116,904 pounds greater than in April when class I utilization was 48 per cent.

The producer butterfat differential on May milk under the Chicago regional order is 8.1 cents per hundredweight for each one-tenth of 1 per cent above or below 3.5 per cent.

The market order blend price paid Chicago regional market producers is reduced 2 cents per hundredweight for each 15 miles beyond zone 1.

A superpool price of $5.79 per hundredweight of Class I (bottling) milk was announced by Central Milk Producers Cooperative early in May, effective with May 5 deliveries. For the entire month, this averages out to approximately $5.78 per hundredweight of Class I milk.

The superpool is a pricing program to help dairy farmers cope with rising production costs by being paid premiums above the announced federal order price on milk used for bottling.

We should have learned by now that it was not without reason that the founders of the country proposed a government of limited powers—a government of checks and balances. In other words, a government in which bureaucracy and authoritarianism were to be controlled. In short, the nation's founders knew too well the dangers of too much government.

4-H Speaking . . .

Crystal Lake. The judges, members of an area Toastmaster Club, commended the young people for the excellence of their presentations, and their ability to express themselves clearly and with poise.

The 4-H Public Speaking Program is a 4-H Club activity and a part of the Lake County Cooperative Extension Service of the University of Illinois.

Sixteen 4-H Junior Leaders, representing eleven Lake County 4-H Clubs, were delegates to "Mission Impossible," the annual Junior Leader Organization Workshop at Camp Shaw-waw-nas-see near Kankakee, June 27-30. Those selected to attend were: Rick Kubetz, Chain O' Lakes; Roger Shanks, Happy Hayceeds; Gordon Turnbull, Libertyville; John White, Millburn; Mary Kay Nachowicz, Charlotte Coulter, Mundelein; Elvies; Alison Heyrdejs; Sequoia; Suzies; Ken Scheskie, Sequoit; Warriors; Bill Regner, Volo; Ag. Eileen Regner, Volo; Bus Bees; Danny Burke, Linda Fillmore, Norma Fillmore, Pat Golden and Joy Schimmel, Warren; Wranglers; Ron Welzen, We Willing Workers.

This workshop, attended by delegates from 31 Illinois Counties is the only one of its kind in the state. It is unique in that it is "of the kids, by the kids and for the kids." The entire weekend was planned by a committee of junior leaders who participated in last year's workshop. "Mission Impossible" was developed to train county delegates in an intensive 3-day search of themselves and their duties. By means of self-introspection, complete participation, and a little "soul-searchings", the delegate will be exposed to a weekend of rigorous work and vigorous play.

The entire approach of the workshop is that of teenagers instructing each other. It has been found that this method leads to more positive leadership.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS-6

Antioch Bowling Lanes Maggie & Bob's House Elimination Tournament came to an end last Sunday with Frank Hartnell beating Don Ward four straight games in a best of seven series with games of 236, 211, 190, 176. Frank, on right, received a trophy from Maggie and Bob's Town Club plus a $100 first prize. The runner up, Ward, is on the left.

Ray Young A Winner In Spectacular Race

Two of the closest feature finishes in track history were recorded at the Waukegan Speedway Saturday night. Also a spectacular crash in the fourth lap of the late model feature occurred as Jim Foster's throttle jammed and he crashed full force through the first turn wall.

The late model feature was punctuated by spins and scraps. Rich Davis led every lap but the one that counted as he and Ray Young brushed with half a lap to go. Bob Roper entered the scene and the three came for the checkered flag side-by-side with Young winning and Davis taking second by a bumper. The hobby feature was almost an instant replay as 16 cars started and 16 finished. In this race Len Ostrenga led every lap to win by less than half a car length over Chuck Clark and Tom Reuss. This weekend there will be 3 nights of competition. Friday night will feature the U.A.R.A. Midgets.

Russell Is Burned At Wilmot

Milwaukee modified car owner Byron Russell was seriously burned when boiling water from his car covered him following a pit stop by the car in races at the Kenosha County Speedway Saturday night.

Roger Otto, defending Champion of IRA and at Wilmot, continued to be the odds-on favorite to repeat at least the Wilmot title as he took another feature race win and added another Midwest Racing News Feature Winner Decal to his Pontiac powered modified.

Bryon Russell was first taken to Burlington Memorial Hospital but following examination was transferred to St. Mary's Burn Center in Milwaukee.

On the exciting start of the feature race, Denny McKay of Elgin brought out the only red flag as his car lost a wheel. He was not able to restart. Earlier, he and Al Schill had qualified for top honors with runs of 17.35 seconds.

On the restart Jim Sullivan took the lead with Ron Bergsma pressing to take over. Otto worked his way up but couldn't take over until the mid point in the 30 lap distance. Sullivan and Bergsma continued to trade off the second spot and to pressure Otto. On the last lap, Bergsma was behind Otto with Sullivan ahead of Eddie Loomis and Jr. Dodd.

The semi-feature was won by Ray Dobbs of West Allis ahead of Roger Isles of Waukegan. Heats were won by Mike Kukla of North Chicago, Bill Kline of Burlington, Eddie Loomis of Waukegan, and Roger Otto.

Chuck Olson won the Sportsman semi-feature and Chuck Chadwick of Grayslake won the feature. Attendance was 3441 and the purse was $2345.00.

The modifieds, sportsman and a ladies powder puff race will be presented on Thursday night, July 3.

Little League Meeting Is Set

The meeting will be held at the police station.

Young Extends Streak

Ray Young extended his feature win string to four at the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night as he won the 30 lap event by four car-lengths over Bob Roper. Threatening weather hung over the Speedway all night, but the crowds saw a full program before the rains came in the last lap of the hobby feature.

The first late model heat was stopped by a spectacular fire as Paul Graddock of Round Lake hit the second turn wall and dumped gasoline all over the track. With the back end of the car engulfed in flames, the car journeyed through the infield still running and in gear as Graddock bailed out.

Dick Dornbusch of Lake Bluff was involved in another accident, but he saw the fire, leaped from his car with a fire extinguisher and had most of the fire put out by the time the Speedway safety crews reached the scene. Dornbusch is a volunteer fireman in Knollwood, Illinois.

Jerry Welsh of Markham led the feature for two laps before Jim Cossman of Waukegan took command. On the fifth lap Young moved into second spot with Welsh third. At that point they were followed by Verne Browne of Waukegan, Bob Roper of Chicago, Dave Evans of Mundelein and Bob Knoll of Chicago in close order.

Young and Cossman raced wheel to wheel for several laps before the Chicago speedster took the lead. In the 12th lap both Evans and Knoll dropped out. Earlier Evans had set fast time at 15.10 seconds.

In the 18th lap Roper moved past Cossman for second and set out after Young. Although Young had a quarter lap lead at this point, Sudling cut it down to four car-lengths at the checkered flag.

Harold Grimes of McHenry took the lead in the fourth lap to win the hobby stock feature that was finished in a heavy rain. Chuck Belcher of Park City was second, and Paul Lewis of Waukegan was third. Chuck Clark of Waukegan won the hobby trophy dash while the heat race events went to Bob Klemm of Gurnee and Tom Reuss of Round Lake.

The second heat in the late model division was also stopped due to a spectacular multi-car accident that nearly demolished the car of Marty Boecher of Chicago. Vern Browne spun in the 4th turn while leading the race and was struck head-on by Boecher. Boecher, in turn, was struck by Bob May of Gurnee and he was hit by a number of other cars.

Nitro Fuel Dragsters To Compete

The Smothers Brothers racing team has entered two supercharged nitro fuel dragsters in this weekend's "National Championship Drag Races" at Great Lakes Dragaway.

Dwight Salisbury of Los Angeles and Don Garlits of Seffner, Florida are the drivers. Garlits drove a Smothers Brothers dragster to victory last month in the "Olympics of Drag Racing" at the Union Grove track. Both drivers have recorded speeds over 230 mph and are among the favorites to win this weekend.

Their stiffest competition is expected from Chris Karamesine of Chicago, Tom Hoover of Minneapolis, Dennis Osborn of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Connie Kalita and LeRoy Goldstein of Detroit. Goldstein was involved in a spectacular accident last Labor Day weekend at the Great Lakes Dragaway.

The entire engine and supercharger exploded just as Goldstein crossed the finish line while traveling over 200 mph. The dragster careened out of control and crashed head on into the guardrail. While the front part of the racer remained buried below the guard rail, the engine rolled 200 feet in one direction and Goldstein, held securely in the roll cage by the safety harness, bounced 100 feet in the opposite direction. He suffered only lacerations and bruises in the mishap.

Goldstein will be at the wheel of the famed "Ramchargers," in this meet. "Der Weinerschnitzel," which he was driving last year when he crashed, will be piloted by Jim Nicoll of Los Angeles.

The dragsters are scheduled to race Saturday night at 8:30 and Sunday at 2 p.m., the last two days of the 4 day national meet.

The supercharged nitro burning funny cars complete the first two days, Thursday night at 8:30 and Friday, the 4th of July at 2 p.m. Super stocks are on tap all four days. The Great Lakes Dragaway is located 20 miles south of Milwaukee on Highway 45 at Union Grove, Wis.

Three Nights Of Racing Greet Fans

The Fourth of July weekend will be a headliner at the Waukegan Speedway as three special nights of racing are in store for speed fans. On Friday night, July 4 the U.A.R.A. Midgets will return for their third appearance of the season.

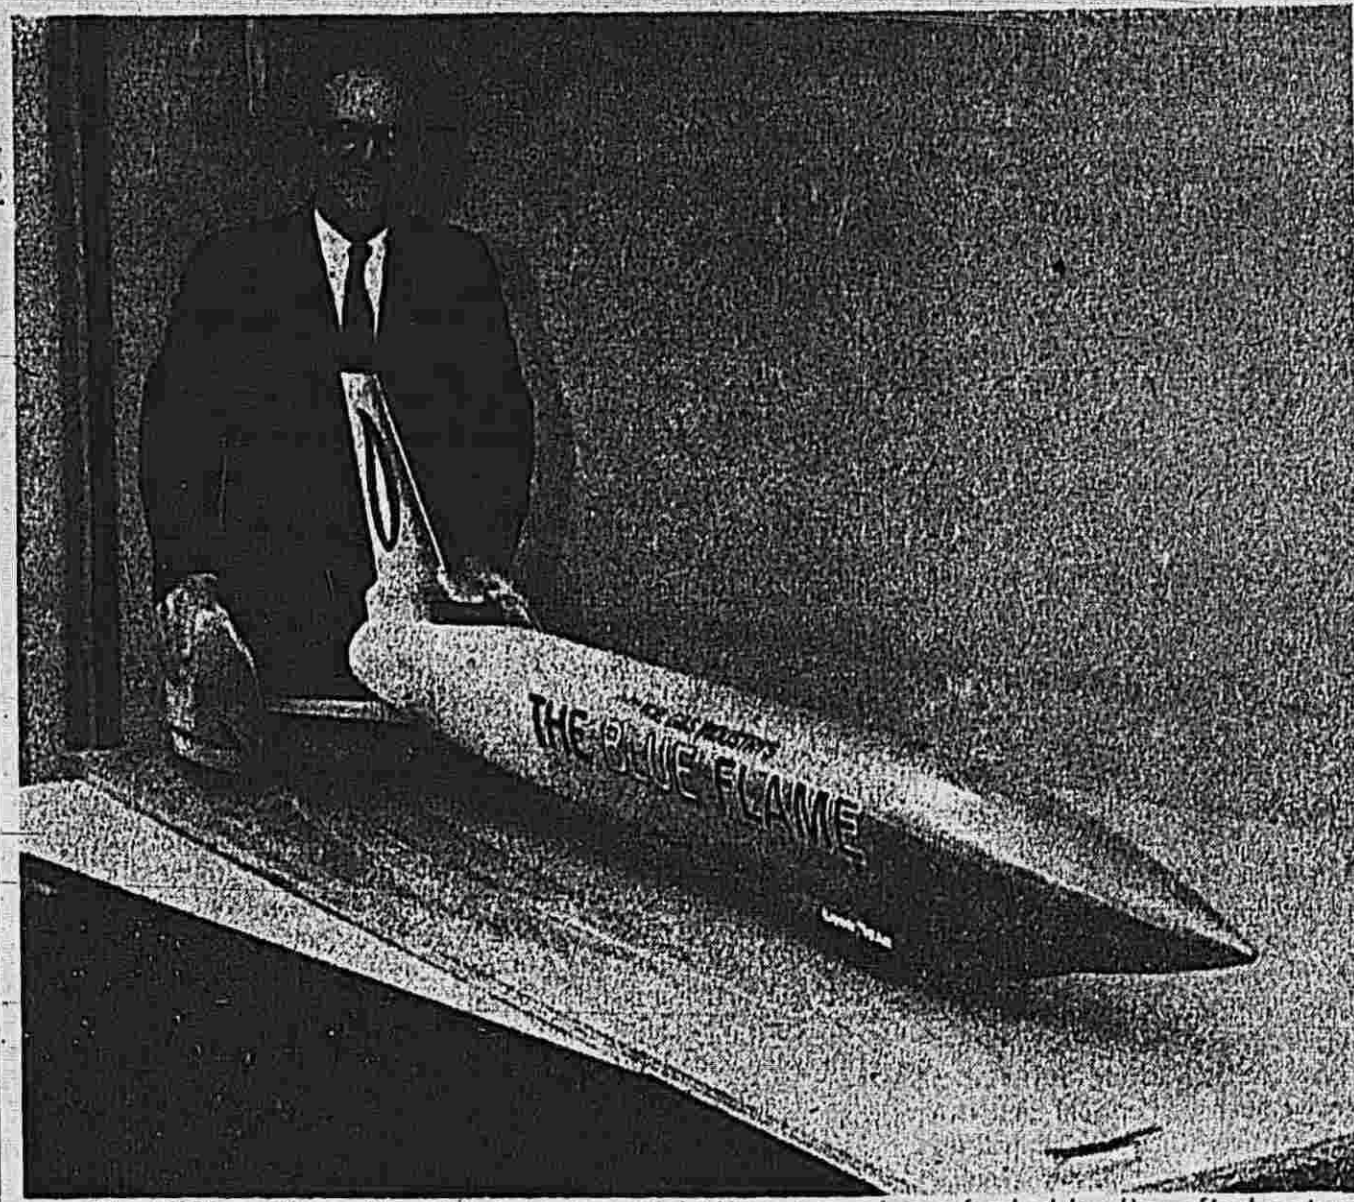

The late model super stocks will race on both Saturday and Sunday nights with a professional fireworks display on both of these nights.

Ron Clemens of Lockport and John Deering of Elgin won the first two midget features at Waukegan and both are expected to enter this Friday's races. Deering holds the 1-lap track record at Waukegan with a 13.64 qualifying lap.

The U.A.R.A. Organization has extended an invitation to the Badger Midgets to join in these Waukegan programs. During the last race on Memorial Day Carl Haak of Milwaukee was involved in a spectacular two car accident that sent his midget flipping violently through the air. It is not known if Haak will enter this Friday's races.

Friday's races will include a trophy dash and other preliminary events leading to the 40 lap feature. A good turn out of cars is anticipated for these races. The Hobby Stock Division will also be running in bonus events Friday.

The "Blue Flame", a 37-foot long rocket powered car fueled by liquefied natural gas, may well set a new land speed record this fall at the Bonneville Salt Beds in Utah. Above is Marvin Chandler, chairman of the Northern Illinois Gas Co., with a model of the car. NI-Gas is one of the principal natural gas industry sponsors of the race car project.

Rocket Car To Attempt New Land Speed Record

The "Blue Flame", a rocket-powered car fueled by liquefied natural gas (LNG), will try to beat the 600.001 m.p.h. land speed record this fall at the Bonneville Salt Beds in Utah.

Northern Illinois Gas Company, one of the principal sponsors of the project, says the "Blue Flame's" rocket motor develops 13,000 pounds of thrust and will need only five gallons of LNG for its record attempt.

According to Marvin Chandler, NI-Gas chairman, the natural gas industry is financing the project to demonstrate the safety and versatility of LNG. The fuel—the same natural gas used in cooking and heating—becomes liquefied at 258 degrees below zero and is stored at a volume of only 1/600 of regular natural gas.

The "Blue Flame" will challenge Craig Breedlove's 1965 record set in the "Spirit of America—Sonic 1". A model of the LNG car has been tested in the Ohio State University's Aeronautical and Astronautical Research Laboratory wind tunnel at speeds up to 920 m.p.h., and the car's design has been declared aerodynamically stable. Goodyear Tire and Rubber company will design and construct special tires for the racer.

The low combustibility of the fuel, and tested aerodynamic characteristics make the "Blue Flame" one of the safest racing vehicles to attempt a land speed record, according to Chandler.

The car is being built by Reaction Dynamics, Inc., of Chicago. Consultants from Illinois Institute of Technology, the Institute of Gas Technology and Ohio State University, as well as specialists in rocket engine technology, are also working on the project.

Bristol Pro-Am TV Guide Tournament Benefit For Retarded Children

Multiple Dwellings Discussed

Four members of the Lake County Zoning Board of Appeals met with the county's Housing Study Committee on Friday, June 27.

ZBA Chairman John M. Sterley led off the discussion by asking, "Who knows the real cause of the current housing shortage? Is it because of new industry, the military, or the lure of new open space? Are we, perhaps, growing too fast?"

Other members of the zoning board present for the joint session were: Robert J. Webb, Eliza Gwaltney, and John J. Hogan. Unable to attend was the other member of the ZBA, Thomas Z. Hayward.

Sterley explained that the zoning board goes by the zoning ordinance where possible and has nothing to do with future planning. He said major considerations in making a recommendation are: what the present zoning is on a given piece of land, and what is good for the community. It has been the feeling of some Housing Study Committee members that zoning, along with lack of adequate sewers, are the two greatest problems which must be overcome in order to attract potential large tract developers and thus alleviate the 40,000 unit housing shortage facing the county.

It was brought out at the Friday meeting that any high rise developments, that is anything over five stories, is banned in the unincorporated areas due to limitations of the present zoning ordinance. This, along with other recommendations may ultimately be brought before the full County Board of Supervisors in the Housing Study Committee's final, formal report.

Mayors Invited To Urban Needs Meeting

Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., today invited more than 200 mayors and city managers of major cities and towns in Illinois to participate in a joint Community-Federal Conference on Urban Progress.

The Conference will be held in Washington on July 25. Sen. Everett McKinley Dirksen, R-Ill., will be the keynote speaker.

Percy said the purpose of the Conference is to bring together for a series of meetings key municipal, state and Federal officials to discuss the Nixon Administration's approach to urban problems, federal assistance programs to local communities and ways to strengthen the federal-state-community partnership for the development of Illinois.

"The July Conference meets a demonstrated need to bring together public officials who must deal, on a day-by-day basis with urgent community problems in Illinois with Federal officials who are charged with the responsibility of making policy in the urban sector and of planning and executing programs to assist Illinois communities," Percy said.

Members of the President's Cabinet as well as members of the White House staff will attend the Conference. The meetings will be held at the Capitol.

Members of both groups stated Friday that an educational process must be launched to inform county residents about some basic misconceptions regarding zoning for multiple dwelling units. For instance, it was pointed out that apartments actually bring in a greater tax return to the various districts, including schools, than single family homes. It was also the consensus that Lake County's growth problem can not be solved with single family dwellings; it must be a blend of apartments, mobile homes, and single family residences.

One member of the Housing Study group said what the county really needs in order to attract the large developers is a sophisticated planned development ordinance. He says multi-million dollar firms from many sections of the country have looked at Lake County but feel the 1,000 acre type of planned development is not feasible here at this time due to zoning hurdles which must be overcome.

Some final reports from sub-committees of the Housing Study Committee, specifically on utilities and development, may be ready for the next meeting.

Holiday Travelers Will Fill Highways

The Chicago Motor Club-AAA estimates that more than 1,300,000 people will leave the Chicago metropolitan area in 375,000 cars during the July 4th holiday, with the major exodus beginning about 4 p.m., Thursday, July 3.

Indications are that the average auto vacation trip for the three-day weekend will be to destinations within 350 miles of the city. The traffic load is expected to reach its peak between 4 and 9:30 p.m. Sunday, July 6, when most of the holiday motorists are expected to be returning to the area.

Estimates are based on good weather conditions prevailing and take into consideration that the majority of people will be able to take advantage of the three-day holiday.

As they travel, motorists will be hearing and seeing the phrase, "Bring 'Em Back Alive!"—theme of the Chicago Motor Club-AAA's positive manner of encouraging safer and more pleasurable holiday driving.

"With an increasing number of motorists on the highways there is greater need for alertness and courtesy in driving," Gerald W. Cavanagh, motor club president pointed out. "Even so, there is no reason for people to miss the enjoyment of summer holidays and pleasure trips by car. That is why we take a positive approach to traffic safety in our 'Bring 'Em Back Alive!' program."

Included in the Chicago Motor Club-AAA "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" tips are these safe driving practices:

Start early and stop early; maintain at least one car length of space for each 10 miles an hour of speed; use extra caution in passing; have your expressway entrance and exit points well in mind; never back up on an expressway; stop for a refresher break at least once every three hours; use safety belts at all times; avoid alcohol; and always drive defensively.

By observing these and other common sense procedures drivers can contribute much to their own and others' safety, the motor club said.

Keep Guard Up, Accidents Down

"Keep your safety guard up and keep accidents down." That is the advice of the Lake County Safety Commission as Lake County gets ready to celebrate the Fourth of July.

"People get a little too care-free simply because it's a holiday," the Commission warned. "They forget to be cautious. They get 'holiday happy'."

The Commission added that holiday periods are among the most dangerous times of the year—25 to 30 per cent more dangerous on the highway, for example, than normal periods.

"And that's the time," said the Commission, "when everyone should be more safety-conscious than ever."

"The fact that it's Independence Day doesn't mean we can afford to be independent on the highway. Cooperation and courtesy are the keys to traffic safety."

The Commission feels it is possible to keep the highway accident toll down this year if drivers use simple common sense and courtesy. Here's its code for the road this Fourth of July.

If you drive, don't drink. Look out for the other guy—and yourself. Adjust your speed to conditions. Take it easy—don't tire yourself. Be considerate. Use your seat belts. "Remember," said the Commission, "there are millions of others just as eager as you are for a happy holiday."

"If you forget it you may not have a second chance to remember."

The reason persons drown are depressingly repetitious, says the water safety chairman of Mid-America Chapter of the American Red Cross.

"We've kept drowning statistics in this area for four years," says Robert Pohl of Glenview, "and reasons for drownings fall under swimming without supervision, suffered cramp, hit submerged object when diving, or boat overturned and nonswimmer had no lifejacket."

Pohl continues, "you can lump all of these reasons for drowning under one word—overconfidence—the same thing that caused the loss of life on the Titanic."

Pohl adds that drowning statistics are less when persons persons are "water-proofed."

The nationwide drowning rate was 10.2 per 100,000 persons in the years prior to 1914. That year the American Red Cross water safety programs were launched, and today drowning rates are 3.6 per 100,000.

Pohl points out that Red Cross trained instructors will teach "learn-to-swim" classes to more than 100,000 youngsters from 8 to 18 this summer at pools operated by the Chicago Board of Education, Chicago Park District, and

Drowning Victims On Increase

The 1,500 persons who drowned in the sinking of the Titanic are less than one-third the number of persons who will drown at America's beaches and swimming pools during 1969.

Many of these may lose their lives during the three-day Fourth of July weekend.

Memorial Day weekend, 1969, meant that 32 Americans died in boating accidents, and 170 drowned in swimming mishaps. Three of these were from the Chicago area.

Drowning statistics usually increase as the temperature increases, so the Fourth of July weekend may produce an even higher three-day mortality rate. In 1968, the Fourth of July fell on Thursday, and three boys drowned in the Chicago area. From April 1, 1968, through Labor Day, 92 persons drowned in the five-county area surrounding Chicago.

The reason persons drown are

11 Million Vets Get Education

More than 11 million veterans have received G.I. Bill education and training in the quarter of a century since the World War II G.I. Bill was signed into law on June 22, 1944, the Veterans Administration reported today.

Under the World War II program, 7,800,000 veterans received $14.5 billion in educational assistance from the VA. Before that program ended in suburban park districts. Parents can give their toddlers "pre-school learn to swim" by using the Red Cross booklet, "Teaching Johnny to Swim," available for 25 cents from any Red Cross office.

Everyone can learn swim strokes or perfect them by using the illustrated textbook revised in 1968, "Red Cross Swimming and Water Safety," available for $1 from any Red Cross office or at bookstores.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS—7 THURSDAY, JULY 3, 1969

July 1958, more than two and a quarter million World War II veterans entered the nation's colleges and universities. Another 3,400,000 took below-college-level training.

On-the-job trainees numbered 1,400,000 while 690,000 received institutional on-farm training.

The Korean G.I. Bill education and training program ran from July 16, 1952, to Jan. 31, 1965.

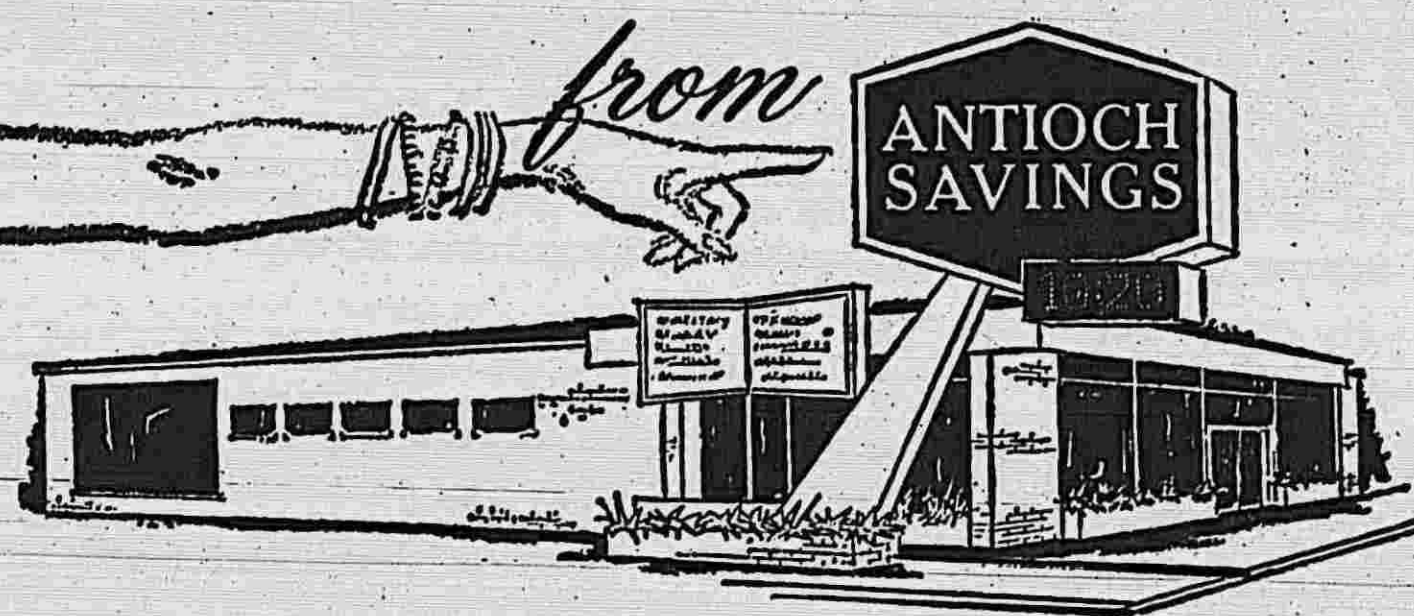

During this period, 2,391,000 eligible veterans received $4.5 billion in VA educational assistance allowances.

More than half of the Korean Conflict G.I. Bill trainees (1,213,000) entered colleges and universities, 800,000 took below-college level training, 223,000 received on-the-job training, and 95,000 enrolled in institutional on-farm training.

The present Post-Korean G.I. Bill education and training program began on June 1, 1966. To date nearly 1,150,000 eligible veterans and 83,000 servicemen have entered training—697,000 at the college level, 394,000 below-college-level, and 58,000 in on-the-job training.
